BALVANT @ BALIYA DEVA HARIJAN THRO. ISWARBHAI M CHAUHAN

Versus

DISTRICT MAGISTRATE BANASKANTHA

Appearance:

1. Special Civil Application No. 12468 of 2001

MS DR KACHHAVAH for Petitioner No. 1

MR KAMLESH KACHHAVAH for Petitioner No. 1

MR S.S. PATEL, AGP for Respondent State

CORAM : MR.JUSTICE A.L.DAVE

Date of decision: 04/02/2002

ORAL JUDGEMENT

The petitioner came to be detained by virtue of an order dated 27.8.2001 passed by the District

Magistrate, Banaskantha at Palanpur in exercise of power under Section 3 of the PASA Act. The order was executed on 8.9.2001.

2. The grounds of detention indicate that the petitioner has been branded as a dangerous person. The detaining authority after considering offence registered against the detenu and recording statements of anonymous witnesses observed that the petitioner is required to be immediately prevented from pursuing his illegal and anti-social activities and resorting to less drastic remedy under ordinary law is not possible as immediate prevention is necessary and therefore, passed the order in exercise of powers under Section 3 of the PASA Act.

4. The petitioner seeks to challenge the said order by this petition under Article 226 of the of Constitution of India on various grounds. The learned Advocate for the petitioner Ms. D.R. kachhavah submitted that the order stands vitiated only on the ground that the satisfaction recorded by the detaining authority for urgent need for detention is not genuine. To support her version, she submitted that the statement of witnesses were recorded on 10.7.2001 whereas they were verified by the Dy. Supdt. of Police on 15.7.2001 and the order was passed on 27.8.2001 i.e. after about six weeks. If the satisfaction for the urgent detention was genuine, the order would have been passed immediately and therefore the order may be quashed.

5. Learned AGP Mr. S.S. Patel has opposed to this petition.

6. Having regard to the contention raised before this Court, the grounds of detention indicate that the detaining authority observed that the detenu is a dangerous person, his activity results in disturbance to public order, action against him under ordinary law will have no effect on him, that it is not possible to prevent him from pursuing his activities by taking action under ordinary law and therefore, he is required to be immediately detained under PASA. This subjective satisfaction does not appear to be genuine for the reason that the detaining authority had before him the proposal atleast before 15.7.2001, he has verified the statement on 15.7.2001 and thereafter order is passed only on 27.8.2001. If the satisfaction recorded by the authority was really genuine, the action would have been taken much earlier and order would have been passed earlier. The satisfaction therefore is not genuine in law. The order of detention therefore stands vitiated. The petition deserves to be allowed only on this count.

7. The petition is therefore, allowed. Order of detention dated 27th August, 2001 passed by the District Magistrate, Banakantha at Palanpur is quashed and set aside. Detenu balvant alias Baliya Deva Harijan be released from detention forthwith, if not required in any other case. Rule made absolute. No costs. Direct service permitted.
